What Covid-19 safety protocols are in place in the Great Hall?

Vaccinations required. Music at Kohl continues to require proof of up-to-date vaccination against COVID-19 for all patrons — and strongly recommends booster shots. For help with a digital proof of vaccination, visit <https://myvaccinerecord.cdph.ca.gov/>.

If you are ineligible for a COVID-19 vaccination Music at Kohl requires proof of a negative antigen test (home test) taken on the day of the concert, to be presented before entry.

Face masks. While it is no longer mandated by the county, Music at Kohl still requires well-fitting, properly worn masks for patrons and staff at all times while indoors at the Kohl Mansion. We highly recommend N95 or KN95 masks for maximum effectiveness.

Cleaning. Our custodial team ensures that all public spaces are cleaned and serviced in readiness to welcome you. There are hand sanitizer stations available throughout the Mansion

Will there be pre-concert talks?

We expect to provide online pre-concert materials for the first three concerts of our season, and will announce the return of live talks as appropriate. Program Notes will be provided on our website, and via email as well as in person for all ticket holders.

Will there be Master Classes?

Young Chamber Musicians Master Classes begin at 5:00 p.m. prior to concerts this season (except Nov.13 & May 7). Attendance at Master Classes is limited to 50 persons. Registration will be required - ticket holders will receive a link for registration.

Will there be intermissions?

Yes, all concerts are planned to have a 20-minute intermission.

Will there be post-concert receptions?

At this time, we expect to provide the opportunity to meet and greet the musicians post concert over a glass of complimentary wine, immediately following each concert (subject to change)

Will you offer virtual programming as well as live concerts?

A selection of concert broadcasts is still under consideration and will be announced prior to the opening of the season,

Will tickets be available at the box office on the night of the concert?

Online and phone ticket sales will close by 2 pm on each concert day. Remaining available tickets will be sold at the box office beginning one half hour prior to each concert on a first come-first served basis.

Are Music at Kohl Concerts wheelchair accessible?

Music at Kohl is wheelchair accessible. Call in advance for special assistance. 650-762-1130

What if I have to miss a concert due to illness?

We encourage everyone to monitor their own symptoms and to stay at home if you feel at all ill. Provided you let us know at least two hours in advance of the concert, so that we can release your ticket to another patron, we will work with you to exchange your ticket for another performance tax credit for donated tickets.

Why are your safety protocols stricter than state or county mandates?

The safety and well-being of everyone involved with Music at Kohl remains our highest priority. We feel it is appropriate to adopt measures to provide a greater degree of safety than the minimum public health mandated requirements. We are committed to providing excellence in chamber music performance while keeping our audiences, musicians, staff, and volunteers as safe as possible.
