Kohl Mansion at the holidays

Trio Bohémo

Musica Pacifica

Burlingame, Calif. (Nov. 7, 2025) — Music at Kohl Mansion, the Bay Area's venerable presenter of international chamber music programs, will celebrate the holidays with two upcoming concerts in the elegantly decorated historic Kohl Mansion: Trio Bohémo, the widely acclaimed piano trio from the Czech Republic in their house debut on Sunday, Nov. 16, and a whimsical Baroque Holiday Program featuring Musica Pacifica with guest artist, Korean soprano Chea Kang on Sunday, Dec. 14. Both performances will begin at 7 p.m. at Burlingame's cherished landmark, Kohl Mansion, 2750 Adeline Drive.

Sunday, November 16, 2025 at 7 p.m.

TRIO BOHÉMO* (Prague, Czech Republic - founded in Budapest, Hungary)

Jan Vojtek, piano; Matouš Pěruška, violin; Kristina Vocetková, cello

Joseph Haydn: Piano Trio in A Major, Hob.XV:35

Bohuslav Martinů: Piano Trio No. 2 in D minor, H.327

Jan Vičar: Cycle of folk songs, "From Moravia"

Bedřich Smetana: Piano Trio in G minor, Op. 15

"They are the music that this world needs." (London's Wigmore Hall debut)

"... an immensely promising debut." (The Guardian)

Shortly after its formation in 2019, the Trio Bohémo's talent and deep musicality became apparent. They received numerous awards beginning with the Gianni Bergamo Award in Lugano, Switzerland, where they were awarded second prize. Due to this success, the trio has rapidly won awards as "Ensemble of the Year in 2021," followed by critical recognition in Vienna including the audience prize at the "International Johannes Brahms Competition," and first prize at the "International Filippo Nicosia Award" in Italy. The trio's stunning successes on the competition circuit has led to a number of debut appearances including on BBC Radio, performances in Lithuania, returns to Austria for the "International Joseph Haydn Chamber Music Competition," and a debut in Melbourne, Australia. The trio's busy touring schedule counts successful appearances at Vienna's Musikverein, London's Wigmore Hall, the Prague Spring Festival, and in Ghent at the Festival van Vlaanderen. During the current 2025-26 season, the acclaimed Czech piano trio will make its debut in New York City followed by performances in Vancouver, Montreal, Las Vegas, Honolulu, Ireland, Denmark, England and the Czech Republic.

Sunday, December 14, 2025 at 7 p.m. - Baroque Holiday Program

MUSICA PACIFICA (San Francisco)

Judith Linsenberg, recorder; Ingrid Matthews, violin; Alexa Haynes-Pilon, viola da gamba; Charles Sherman, harpsichord, and soprano soloist Chea Kang*

Hijinks of the High Baroque: Composers Behaving Badly

Festive music of Georg Philipp Telemann, Francesco Maria Veracini, Jean-Philippe Rameau, Joseph-Nicolas Pancrace Royer, Jean-Marie Leclair, Johann Georg Pisendel, and Johann Sebastian Bach -- punctuated with hilarious stories of the composers' misdeeds and shenanigans.

"Perhaps the standout of the entire festival." (Early Music, UK)

Since its founding in 1990, Musica Pacifica has become widely recognized as one of America's premier baroque ensembles, lauded for both the dazzling virtuosity and the warm expressiveness of its performances. They have been described by the press as "some of the finest baroque musicians in America" (American Record Guide) and "among the best in the world" (Alte Musik Aktuell). In the Bay Area, the artists perform with Philharmonia Baroque, American Bach Soloists, Berkeley Early Music Festival, and appear with many other prominent early music ensembles nationally and abroad. Recent performances include Music Before 1800 and the Frick Collection; the Getty Museum; the Cleveland Art Museum; the Pittsburgh Renaissance and Baroque Society; the Seattle Early Music Guild; the Houston Early Music Society; and the LA County Museum.

Korean soprano Chea Kang is recognized for her distinctive voice and innovative artistry, consistently bringing creativity and originality to her performances. She has appeared at San Francisco Opera, where she debuted as Sister Catherine in Dialogues of the Carmelites (2022), covered Papagena in The Magic Flute (2024), and joined the Merola Opera Program as a young artist in the summer of 2025. She is the second prize winner of the 2024 Handel Aria Competition and a semifinalist in the 2024 Concert Artists Guild Competition. A graduate of The Juilliard School and San Francisco Conservatory of Music, Kang will perform the role of Belle in Philip Glass's La Belle et la Bête with Opera Parallèle in 2026, following her company debut earlier this year as Henrietta Wong in Harvey Milk Reimagined.

MORE CHAMBER MUSIC IN 2026

Music at Kohl Mansion concerts will continue in 2026 with the local debut of the Balourdet Quartet, Jan. 18; the elegant Lysander Piano Trio, Feb. 22; the amazing woodwind quintet Windsync, March 22; the house debut of the Beo String Quartet, April 19; and the return of the renowned Calidore String Quartet, May 3. All concert performances are Sunday evenings at 7 p.m.
