Horszowski Trio

Monday, February 23 at 7:00 p.m.

Hailed by The New Yorker as “destined for great things,” when the members of the Horszowski Trio – Jesse Mills, Raman Ramakrishnan, and Rieko Aizawa – played together for the first time, they immediately felt the spark of a unique connection. Many years of close friendship had created a deep trust between the players, which in turn led to exhilarating expressive freedom. Since their formal debut performance at Rockefeller University in NYC in December 2011, they have already been booked for over 130 concerts in the U.S. and tours of Japan and India. The Trio takes inspiration from the musicianship, integrity, and humanity of Mieczysław Horszowski (1892-1993). The Trio’s debut recording, an album of works by Fauré, Saint-Saëns, and D’Indy – in memory of Mieczysław Horszowski – was released by Bridge Records in the winter of 2014.
